

NYSBA

Nine Great
Reasons For You
to Join Us

With New York State Bar Association membership, you can...

1. Stay informed.

Breaking legal news online. Free law journals and publications. The latest on your area of practice. The information you need to keep your edge.

2. Sharpen your skills.

Learn from the legends. Hone your courtroom skills. Become a better attorney. All through our continuing legal education, sections, Annual Meeting, and institutes for advanced practitioners.

3. Save money.

Free online legal research. Programs to help you practice more profitably. Discounts and special features on insurance and other necessities. You can save more — far more — than the cost of membership.

4. Save time.

Legal resources on our Web site. Online forms. Continuing legal education courses on the Web or CD. Your own full-service resource center — right at your desktop.

5. Meet your CLE requirements.

More than 200 New York law-specific courses. Live, online, by CD. Take them anywhere in the state. Save more than 30%. Track your credits online. All the CLE you need — in one place.

6. Shape your career.

Go to www.nysba.org/jobs for career and employment assistance including the Career and Employment Resources page and information for Lawyers in Transition. Tour the Career Fair at our Annual Meeting. Explore practice areas.

7. Make valuable contacts.

Get advice from experienced attorneys via the Young Lawyers Mentor Directory. Access online listserves and the president's blog. You'll find and get to know the leaders in your practice areas in our 25 sections and myriad committees.

8. Make a difference.

Comment on legislation. Engage in pro bono work. Write articles, lecture at educational seminars, sit on a committee. Become a leader. Dozens of opportunities for you to make a name for yourself.

9. Serve your clients better.

Learn to better manage client relationships through our Law Practice Management Solo and Small Firm Resource Center. Get free ethics opinions — and a library's worth of information — on our Web site. The more you know, the better you serve.
